UNITED WAY DESIGNATION POLICY

To help United Way in processing your designated gift, please provide the name, address and EIN Number for any designated agency and/or non-profit listed. United Way shall assume no liability for the use of said designated funds, misleading or false statements made by said organization, or providing continued funding to said organization from designated funds or non-designated funds in succeeding calendar years. If adequate donor or designation information is not made available, United Way will make reasonable effort to work with the donor to steward their donation appropriately and collect that information. In the event that United Way cannot locate the designated agency, the donor will be given the option to defer their gift to the general fund or have their donation refunded. Designations may be made through the following means: cash, check, credit card, direct bill, or payroll deduction. United Way will honor all designations that total $50.00 or more annually and are accompanied by a completed donor designation card. For more information regarding designations, please visit unitedwaybl.org.
